WELCOME TO THE CHISWICK BOOK FESTIVAL 2019

The 11th Chiswick Book Festival brings together top authors and their readers for an inspiring and entertaining long weekend of fiction, history, politics, economics, crime, gardening, espionage, biography, TV, workshops, children's books and.... food!

We're delighted to be working again with the Cookbook Festival team, to bring you more sessions for those who love the world of food and drink. Meet authors, chefs, restaurateurs and food industry experts in locations across Chiswick. All Cookbook Festival events are marked with their logo. See their brochure for full details and book tickets at www.chiswickbookfestival.net.

The Observer
Books

Put the word out: Chiswick may be Britain's most literary location

We've always celebrated Chiswick writers, and to mark the 10th Festival a year ago, we launched the Chiswick Timeline of Writers & Books. We never thought our search would lead us to more than 250 writers and a Writers Trail graced by Thackeray, Pinter, Osborne and others. See why the Observer reported: 'Chiswick may be Britain's most literary location' at www.chiswickbookfestival.net. And don't miss our Waterstones' Local Authors Party on Wednesday September 11th.

RAISING MONEY FOR VERY GOOD CAUSES

The Chiswick Book Festival is a non-profit-making community event. Since 2009, the Chiswick Book Festival has raised more than £80,000 for charities and St Michael & All Angels Church, which hosts and runs the Festival as part of its community outreach. This year the Chiswick Book Festival and the Cookbook Festival will continue to support two reading charities:

InterAct Stroke Support, which commissions actors to read to stroke patients. The Festival helps to fund its work at Charing Cross Hospital, contributing some two months of reading each year. Read more at www.interactstrokesupport.org.

Doorstep Library, which brings books and the magic of reading to the homes of children in some of London's most disadvantaged areas. Its work improves reading skills, confidence, academic performance and employment prospects. Read more at www.doorsteplibrary.org.uk

This year, we're delighted to support a new charity - The Felix Project, which saves surplus food from suppliers and delivers it to charities and schools in London, to help reduce waste and relieve food poverty. We'll raise awareness and money for it, and the Cookbook Festival team will create recipes to help schools make healthy nutritious meals from the food provided. Read more at <https://thefelixproject.org>

The Chiswick Book Festival takes no public money and is funded entirely from the sale of tickets (and cakes, wine and ale!) and sponsorship (see thanks to our partners on page 22). The Cookbook Festival has its own sponsors and helps cover its running costs by holding regular Cookbook Suppers.

PLANNING YOUR VISIT

HOW TO BUY TICKETS:

ONLINE through Ticketsource at: www.chiswickbookfestival.net

BY POST for those unable to book online, use the Advance Booking Form available from Waterstones, 220-226 Chiswick High Road, London W4 1PD or St Michael & All Angels Church, Bath Road, London W4 1TX. Tickets for most events will be available on the door, unless already sold out.

TICKET PRICES

Ticket prices are shown individually against each event. After last year's trial, and further audience research, we have phased out the Day Pass system and all events will be individually priced, as at most book festivals. See more on the Tickets page of the website.

BUYING BOOKS

A team from Waterstones' Chiswick branch will sell copies of the authors' books after each event and most authors will stay after their talks to sign books.

VENUES, TRAVEL & TIMINGS

On Friday, Saturday and Sunday, all events take place within five minutes walk of Turnham Green tube station: at St Michael & All Angels Church, Parish Hall & Marquees (Bath Road, Chiswick, W4 1TT); Arts Educational Schools (ArtsEd, 14 Bath Road, W4 1LY) - please go to main reception for all events); the Tabard Theatre and the Tabard Pub (the Snug) (2 Bath Road, W4 1LW); London Buddhist Vihara, (Dharmapala Building, The Avenue, W4 1UD); Orchard House School (2 Rupert Road W4 1LX); TGT Cookbook Marquee (Turnham Green Terrace, W4); CookIQ (Turnham Green Terrace Mews, W4).

Other sessions take place at Chiswick House & Gardens (Burlington Lane, W4 2RP), Chiswick Library (1 Duke's Avenue, W4 2AB), Fuller's Brewery (Chiswick Lane South, W4 2QB - by the river) and Waterstones (220 Chiswick High Road, W4 1PD).

Sessions are usually an hour long, with a 30-minute change-over time. Turnham Green (District Line) is the nearest tube station. Buses go along Chiswick High Road and/or Turnham Green Terrace.

Parking: on meters towards Chiswick High Road on Saturday (some 4-hour meters); free north of the Bath Road on Saturday and Sunday.

DISABLED ACCESS

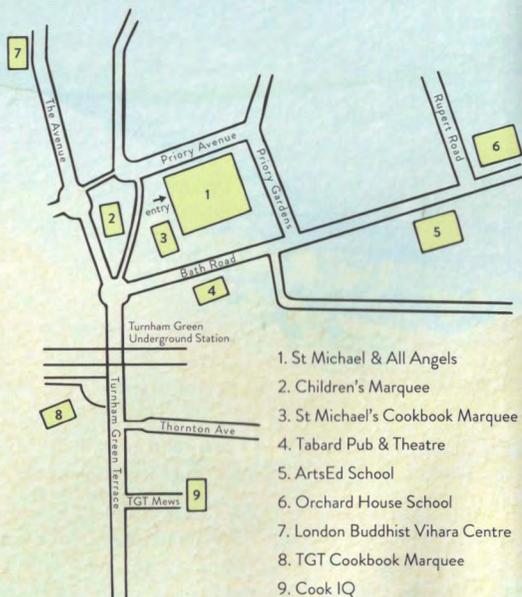

The Burlington Pavilion at Chiswick House, St Michael & All Angels Church and Parish Hall, ArtsEd, Cook IQ, London Buddhist Vihara and Chiswick Library have full disabled access. The Tabard Theatre and Fuller's Hock Cellar are accessed by staircases and unfortunately do not have lifts.

FOOD AND DRINK

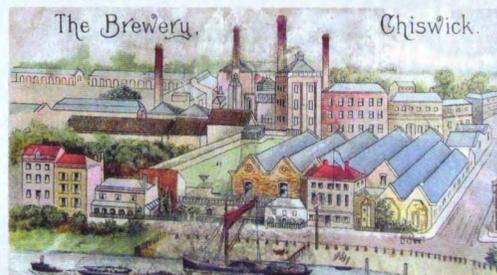

Coffee and home-made cakes will be sold outside the Parish Hall. Drinks will be on sale before the evening sessions at Chiswick House and in the Church. The Cookbook Festival includes some tastings and meals and there are restaurants, cafes, wine bars and pubs within a few minutes' walk; see more on the website.

TOGETHER ON THE TERRACE Sunday September 15th 11-4pm.

In a car-free initiative by Abundance London, Turnham Green Terrace will be closed to traffic on September 15th, as it was for the launch of the Chiswick Timeline mural in January 2018. With support from the Cookbook Festival and local shops, there will be food at communal tables, live music and art, garden, cooking and play activities for children and grown ups. All welcome!

PRE-FESTIVAL EVENTS

Tuesday 10 September, 7:30pm, Quiz Night at Fuller's

Join us for another light-hearted pub quiz in the historic Hock Cellar at Fuller's Brewery. Former BBC Quizmaster Alan Connor is setting the questions again, with local topics and literary conundrums. Ticket price includes two pints of beer (or alternative) and food from the fabulous Cookbook Festival team.

See Festival website for more details.

Hock Cellar, Fuller's Brewery, Chiswick Lane South, £25. Maximum 4 per team, places allocated on a first come first served basis. Over 18's only.

DID YOU KNOW?

The poet and satirist Alexander Pope once lived in the road where Fuller's Brewery is now situated and is commemorated with a blue plaque on the Mawson Arms pub. He was a frequent visitor to Chiswick House where his portrait is displayed. See 'Alexander Pope in Chiswick' on the Chiswick Timeline of Writers and Books at www.chiswickbookfestival.net.

DID YOU KNOW?

Prince Albert visited Chiswick House 175 years ago, in June 1844, to attend a banquet in aid of Tsar Nicholas I of Russia, attended by the King of Saxony, numerous high-born guests and four giraffes. See 'Prince Albert at Chiswick House' on the Chiswick Timeline of Writers and Books at www.chiswickbookfestival.net.

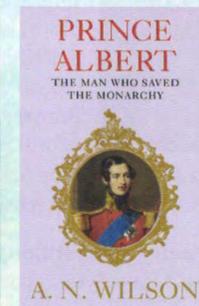

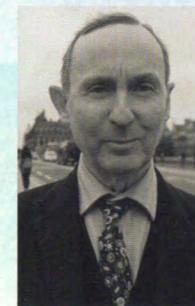

Wednesday 11 September, 7pm-9pm, Waterstones' Local Authors Party

On the eve of the Festival, Torin Douglas and Jo James showcase the wealth of local talent that Chiswick has to offer. Each author has just two minutes to speak about their book, making this a fast-paced, fun and fascinating evening.

Waterstones, 220-226 Chiswick High Road.
Admission free, but tickets must be booked online. See Festival website for author details.

THURSDAY 12 SEPTEMBER 2019

They'll explore imagination, empathy, observation and focus - whether you're an experienced writer or just getting started. Room 125, ArtsEd, £20. See Festival website for more details.

2:15-3:15pm: Life and Death with Marie Colvin
War photographer Paul Conroy (Under the Wire) and Channel 4's international editor Lindsey Hilsum (In Extremis) both worked alongside Sunday Times foreign correspondent Marie Colvin in the blood and confusion of the Arab Spring. Paul was with her in Syria when she was killed. They talk to Julia Wheeler about Marie Colvin's extraordinary life and tragic death.

ArtsEd Theatre, £8

2:15-3:15pm: Inventing Edward Lear
Edward Lear is famous for his limericks and poems such as The Owl and the Pussycat, but the father of nonsense was also a naturalist, a brilliant landscape painter, an experimental travel writer, and an accomplished composer. Sara Lodge presents the fullest account yet of Lear's passionate engagement in the intellectual, social, and cultural life of his times.
St Michael & All Angels Parish Hall, £10, including a glass of wine or soft drink.

GENDER, SEX AND GOSSIP IN AMBRIDGE:
Women in The Archers

2:15-3:15pm: Women in The Archers
Join Archers Academics Dr Cara Courage and Dr Nicola Headman as they discuss the power of gender, sex and gossip in Ambridge, including: portrayals of love, marriage and motherhood; female education and expectations; and the hard-on right of women to play cricket. Chaired by Woman's Hour presenter and long-time Archers fan, Jane Garvey. Orchard House School, £8

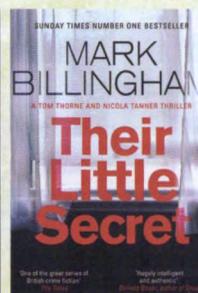

CHILDREN'S FESTIVAL

2:15-3:15pm: Bee Alert!
Barbara Rustin Ben, an aspiring detective staying with his Grandpa for the summer, hopes to find a crime to solve. Stumbling on a case of alarming disappearances he realises that solving this mystery may prove more dangerous than anything he could have imagined. It's all about the bees...

2:30-3:30pm: Crime and Suspense: Linwood Barclay and Mark Billingham
Described by Stephen King as 'a suspense master', Linwood Barclay is the international bestselling author of many critically acclaimed novels. His new book, Elevator Pitch is published in September. Mark Billingham has sold over 5 million books worldwide, and twice won the Theakstons Old Peculier Crime Novel of the Year Award. They discuss the art and craft of writing page turning suspense. St Michael & All Angels Church, £8

The Tabard Theatre, £8

2:30-3:30pm: Sadie Jones: The Snakes
Costa Award-winning author of The Outcast Sadie Jones returns with her new novel, The Snakes. She talks to Cathy Rentzenbrink about the novel, a tense and shocking tale of families, their secrets and unfolding tragedy.

WORKSHOP

2:45-3:55pm: Quick Pitch, session 1
Leading UK literary agent Luigi Bonomi will hear you pitch your novel. You have ten minutes to present your one-page synopsis, 50-word back-cover blurb and the first five pages of your manuscript. Luigi will use his long experience to tell you if your book has a chance and how you can make it more appealing. Tabard Pub, the Snug, £15 per appointment. Your booking will be for a specific appointment time. Please ensure you arrive on time. We cannot admit latecomers. See Festival website for more details.

2:30-3:15pm: Vegan One Pound Meals with Miguel Barclay.
